TEMPLE NEWS

Deepest Gratitude for Joya E Flowers and Kadomatsu

Our sincere gratitude to Nobuko Kida Sensei and Yumiko Carol Nagata for arranging the beautiful flowers for Jikoen's Joya-E Service on December 31. Mahalo to those all who donated flowers and green foliage.

The Nokotsudo and the altar in the hondo was adorned with the beautiful arrangements for Jikoen's Joya-E New Year's Eve Service.

At the front gate entrance was a beautiful kadomatsu "gate pine" arrangement arranged and donated by David Miyasato-Crawford and Claire Uehara. Deep gratitude to Claire and David for the beautiful arrangement.

Thank you to donors Nobuko Kida Sensei, Kawauchi Nursery (Mark and Nona Tamanaha), Earl & Esther Kita, Masuo & Alice Kino, David Miyasato-Crawford, Morris & Ann Moribe, Yumiko Carol Nagata, June Nakamasu, Haruko & Edward Okita, Doris Oshiro, Frances Scott, Eddie Shimabukuro, Claire Uehara, and Katsuo & Jean Yamashiro.

December 31 Joya E Service

At the conclusion of the New Year's Eve service on Dec. 31st, attendees filed out of the main temple hall (hondo), each taking a turn to strike the temple bell (kansho) with a wooden mallet.

It symbolizes to get rid of the 108 human desires. By striking the bell, we "ring out" our passions and delusions and aspire to become free of them in the new year. But why 108?

The "6" represents our six senses of sight, touch, sound, taste, smell, and extra sensory perception. The "3" represents the different ways those senses are experienced: good, bad, or neutral. The "2" is for the dimension of attachment to pleasure: attached or unattached. The final "3" represents past, present, and future. Multiply the numbers and you get 108. $6 \times 3 \times 2 \times 3 = 108$

The New Year's Eve service also included a New Year Dharma message by Rev. Shindo Nishiyama. After the ringing of the bell, attendees gathered in the Social Hall for saimin, soba, sparkling apple cider and other traditional New Year's treats.

Family Promise: March 15–22 at Hongwanji Mission School Dojo

Your kokua is needed for Family Promise of Hawaii! Please make a difference in the lives of families who have fallen onto hard times.

All four temples of the Honolulu district have banded together to participate in this program to help homeless families by providing overnight lodging for one week and meals (breakfast and dinner) for four to five families (up to 16 persons).

Families will be hosted at HMS Dojo March 15–22, 2020. These families will be using the facilities from 5:30 p.m. to 7:00 a.m. daily.

Each morning, the families will go to work, school or the Family Promise Day Center where they meet with staff, care for young children, learn life skills and seek housing and employment.

Jikoen will be responsible for Sunday 3/15 Dinner & Sleepover; Monday 3/16 Breakfast & Dinner and Sleepover; and Tuesday 3/17 Breakfast. Other temples will be covering the remaining dates and times.

Please see the form below for ways YOU can help in this all-important community-service project. You may commit to helping by filling in and sending this form to the temple office or email to jikoen.info@gmail.com. Thank you!

Welcome to the Okinawa Minyo Kyokai Hawaii

Jikoen Hongwanji is happy to welcome the Okinawa Minyo Kyokai Hawaii. The late Derek Ichiro Shiroma Sensei established the club to perpetuate and preserve the unique music, language, and culture of Okinawa through music education, public service, and community outreach. They still continue to carry out Ichiro Sensei's vision by dedicating much of their time to learning to play the sanshin to carry on the Okinawan Culture.

Their sanshin practices for children and adults are held on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of every month.

Newly elected president is Kyle Arakaki; vice-president Gary Jitchaku; secretary Sherice Shiroma; and treasurer Sharon Fujino.

We look forward to having a great partnership with all of you!

Masuo Kino Completes His 36th Great Aloha Run

Masuo "Rock" Kino, who will be 91 years old in April, was joined by his ohana at the Great Aloha Run on February 17, 2020. Some of them flew in from Los Angeles to join him on the 8.15 mile course. He has completed the walk/run from Aloha Tower to the Aloha Stadium every year since the run began 36 years ago.

Congratulations, Mr. Kino!

Four Great Significant Occasions in the Life of a Buddhist

As we observe Nirvana Day in February and Buddha Day (or Hanamatsuri) approaches reflecting on the life of Sakyamuni Buddha, we find 4 momentous occasions in his life. First, there is his birth as Prince Siddhartha Gautama on April 8th. Secondly, there is the attaining of Enlightenment by the former Prince Siddhartha Gautama on December 8th. Third, there is the Parinirvana of the Historic Buddha on February 15th. Traditionally, these occasions are highlighted by what is known as the 3 Great Services which commemorate very significant occasions in the life of the Historic Buddha.

However, I would like to suggest that there is a fourth very significant occasion which is Sakyamuni Buddha's sharing of the Dharma (which traditionally does not have a date in Mahayana Buddhism). For simplicity's sake, I would like to select January 25th as that date based on the information that the enlightened Sakyamuni Buddha is said to have stood up from meditation 49 days after attaining enlightenment. After 49 days of further reflection, the Historic Buddha moved by Great Compassion stood up from meditation with the aspiration to share the Dharma with others.

Examining the life of Shinran Shonin, I see a pattern too. He was born as Matsuwakamaro Hino. Though it is not enlightenment, he takes refuge in the Pure Land Teachings. Then, at the age of 90, he attains birth in Amida Buddha's Pure Land and thus attains Enlightenment or Nirvana.

Although selecting a precise date might be hard the date traditionally used for the establishment of Jodo Shinshu could be interpreted as Shinran Shonin's sharing of the Great Wisdom and Compassion of Amida Buddha with others.

As you may have surmised, I am emphasizing the sharing of the Dharma and/or one's Joy of the Dharma as an important part of the life of all Buddhists. For Jodo Shin Buddhists by virtue of Shinjin or the Mind of True Entrusting that we received from Amida Buddha, the wish or aspiration to attain Buddhahood and also wishing for others to also attain enlightenment arises within us.

My conclusion is that these 4 occurrences are common to life of all Buddhists. We are all born. We all encounter the Dharma or Teachings. We all wish to share the Dharma and/or the happiness, joy or tranquility which we are experiencing with others wishing to enter into a life of enlightenment together. Then, finally, we all attain the Great Nirvana which in Jodo Shinshu expressed as birth in the Pure Land of Enlightenment at the end of this finite life. For all Buddhists, I would think the thought is that these Teachings are too precious and valuable to keep for only oneself. It should be shared with others so others can experience great peace, happiness and tranquility too. In the case of Shinran Shonin too, his joyous experience of gratefully finding himself embraced and never forsaken by Amida Buddha is something so precious and rare that he wants to share it with others. For we, Jodo Shin Buddhists, we don't become enlightened like Sakyamuni Buddha in this life, but rather at the very end of this life we enter into enlightenment with our birth into the Pure Land and all of it is made possible not by my own effort, but by the Great Unconditional Compassion of Amida Buddha based on the 18th Vow.

The sharing of the Nembutsu Teachings is a natural process or outcome of encountering Great Wisdom and Compassion or attaining Shinjin or Mind of True Entrusting. It is not contrived, but a natural sharing of the Joy and Peace of the Buddha-Dharma. To me, a Jodo Shin Buddhist inspired by the Great Compassion of Amida Buddha and out of gratitude humbly reaches out to others as did Shinran Shonin, fully knowing or realizing how incapable I am of exhibiting anything close to Sakyamuni Buddha's achievements and accomplishments, but there is a sincere aspiration which aspires/hopes/wishes that others too can experience these wonderful Nembutsu Teachings. Again, I would express or explain that Shinran Shonin was "Responding in Gratitude" to

Amida Buddha's immense compassion. He wanted to share his awareness, his joy, his gratitude of Namo Amida Butsu with others and we should too!

As a closing reflection, I would like to share a quote of Shinran Shonin. "I praise Amida's wisdom and virtue, So that beings with mature conditions throughout the ten quarters (of the Universe) may hear. Let those who have already realized shinjin, Constantly respond in gratitude to the Buddha's benevolence."

Namo Amida Butsu, Entrusting in All-Inclusive Wisdom and All-Embracing Compassion.

Giseikai Message From the Jodo Shinshu
Hongwanji-ha Governor General Bishop
Chiko Iwagami

On the occasion of the 108th Giseikai of the Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii, I humbly extend my appreciation to you, the ministers and sangha representatives from throughout the state of Hawaii, for gathering here. I would also like to express my heartfelt gratitude to you all for your continuing efforts in propagating Jodo Shinshu and maintaining the temples within your respective districts.

Upon completion of Monshu Ohtani Kojun's trip to the BCA temples last year, the first round of his official visit to the overseas districts was duly finished. Having Canada as the first destination, his trip began 5 years ago, prior to the conducting of the accession ceremonies. Thank you for welcoming the entourage at every stop. This successful accomplishment would have never been possible without your cooperation, and for that, we are truly grateful.

Another significant incident of the last year is the establishment of the Jodo Shinshu International Office in San Francisco, which is expected to enhance the efforts in sharing the Buddha Dharma on the global scale. Its opening ceremony was conducted last September with the attendance of Gomonshu, as well as the bishops and presidents of the four overseas districts. In his address delivered during the ceremony, Monshu Ohtani expressed his keen anticipation for the office to become the foundation to share the Jodo Shinshu teaching with people across the world. In order to allow the office to expand as the propagational base beyond the framework of each overseas district, your guidance and cooperation is crucial.

At Hongwanji, the 850th Anniversary of Shinran Shonin's Birth and the 800th Anniversary of Establishment of the Jodo Shinshu Teaching will be conducted in 2023. Having this Joint Celebration before us, the special organizational structure that consists of several divisions was launched on November 1st last year. Since then, every conventional department of the Hongwanji institute has been allocated to one of those divisions. This celebratory service should be observed with our gratitude to the founder Shinran Shonin and our joy of encountering the Jodo Shinshu teaching because we would not be who we are today without either of them.

In today's world where a self-centered way of thinking prevails, ranging widely from small communities to the national level, we, the sangha of Nembutsu followers must endeavor to realize a society in which everyone can live a life of spiritual fulfillment, and as an activity in that effort, we must move forward aiming at the successful observance of the Joint Celebration.

In closing, it is my hope that the Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii will continue to prosper and that many fruitful results will arise from this annual meeting.
