MINISTER'S MESSAGE

Rev. Shindo Nishiyama

Dear Jikoen Members and Friends,

It's been over two years since the Pandemic began. During that time, Jikoen has been closed for Sangha Family Services, Dharma School Programs, Jikoen Buddhist Women's Association activities, and other significant activities, including our New Year's Party, BBQ Chicken Sales, Annual Bazaar, Keirokai gatherings, and Bon Dances. We couldn't meet, talk, and enjoy our fellow Jikoen members during these past two years. But now, we have reopened for weekly in-person Sangha Family Services, and we are slowly restarting other activities.

Our weekly in-person services are also shared on Zoom for those who are unable to come to the temple and those who find it more comfortable to join the service from their homes. It is clear that the traditional way of offering Jikoen's services needs to change to meet today's conditions if we are to continue sharing the Buddha Dharma with everyone.

We are still not sure about the changing Covid-19 situation, so we need to be ready to adjust our lives to deal with whatever happens in our community and the world. Please continue to take care of yourself and your family and be safe! Remember that Amida Buddha's Wisdom and Compassion are always with you in the name, Namoamidabutsu. Email or call me if you need help from our Jikoen family!

Finally, I would like to extend my sincere appreciation to Temple President Doris Oshiro, and former JBWA President June Nakamasu, for their hard work in the Jikoen office every day. My heartfelt thanks to BWA President Dorene Toma and her husband, Jimmy Toma, to the Dharma School staff, JoAnn and Ai, to our volunteers who clean the yard, Earl & Esther Kita for maintaining the social hall and temple, to BWA members who come every week to clean the altar, to Wayne for his knowledge and skills for financial matters, to all Board members who work hard to keep Jikoen operating, to Sandy Toma for coordinating the services, Norman for editing our monthly newsletter, to John Toguchi for arranging for temple renovations, especially for our newly installed lift, to Pieper who helps edit my minister's messages and provides me a wide range of advice, and to all Lumbini Preschool staff for their dedication to our community throughout the pandemic conditions. Of course, to everyone else, thank you for the many ways you support our Jikoen Ohana! !

I am very fortunate to be your Jikoen minister for all these years. I am what I am because of all your kindness and understanding. I promise to continue providing compassionate care to all and work with you to preserve Jikoen's legacy for present and future generations. Namoamidabutsu.

Gassho,

Reverend Shindo Nishiyama

My Life Story (Part 4)

One of the first people I met from Jikoen was Dr. Albert Miyasato. He was a unique, dynamic, and joyful Shin Buddhist. I liked his good ideas for supporting and improving Hongwanji. He used to say to me, "Sensei, I am so lucky to encounter Buddhism. It teaches me to live my life in joy and gratitude. Buddhism helps me to understand why I was born." We will never forget his dedication to our Hongwanji, especially the Hongwanji Mission School and other educational programs. One of his most outstanding achievements was to help establish the Pacific Buddhist Academy with the late Bishop Yosemite, Fred Nonaka, and Pieper Toyama.

After a year assigned to Hawaii Betsuin and completing the New Minister's Orientation Program in Honolulu, I was posted to Waimea Hongwanji on Kauai on July 1, 1992, by the late Bishop Tom Nakanishi. A week before their Bon Dance and two months before Hurricane Iniki hit.

When we arrived at the Lihue Airport, the late Muggsy Morikawa (Nisei veteran of the 100th Infantry Battalion) came to pick us up in his Honda Civic. I had expected temple leaders and BWA members to welcome us with leis, but Mr. Morikawa had come by himself. We had at least four or five suitcases and boxes with all our belongings. His Honda Civic was too small. I apologized, but I also reminded him that HQ had informed Waimea temple leaders that we were bringing several suitcases and boxes. He looked at our luggage and said, "Sensei, you bring too much from Honolulu! We only need simple clothes, a little money, and food to live. No good to have too many things!"

Suzie and I were a little uncomfortable with his comments instead of words of welcome. However, I later understood what he was trying to tell us. "SHOYOKUCHISOKU" means to live with “fewer desires and more appreciation for what we have.” He followed his advice to live simply because he came to see us at the airport with rubber slippers, wearing an Aloha Airlines t-shirt with a few puka. He was unique and casual, but he held a deep and heartfelt love for the Hongwanji and his temple.

Our busy new life in Waimea began with Bon Dance preparations. Suzie and I quickly settled down to life in Waimea. We met many people through the Bon Dance who welcomed us as the new minister and his wife from Japan. The late Norman Takashiba, the late Henry and Michiko Tanaka, the Murakami family, the Kakuda family, the Morikawa family, the Date family, the Taniguchi family, the Miyamotos, the Ishihara family, the Kobashigawa family, and many other Waimea Hongwanji members were so kind and welcoming. We received support and love from everyone to start our new life in Waimea.

However, our greatest challenge came in two short months, on September 5, 1992. We heard the emergency siren in the early morning, but we didn't know what was happening. We didn't have a TV yet since we moved to Waimea. The late Mr. Takashiba called me, “Sensei, you have to evacuate to Waimea High School! A big hurricane will hit Kauai soon!” Police officers came and warned us to evacuate. However, I told my wife, “No worry! A hurricane is like a typhoon in Japan. I have had many experiences with typhoons because my hometown Kyushu is in a typhoon path! Suzie, don't be afraid and relax! Don't worry, be happy!”

However, I was wrong! Hurricane Iniki was a Super Typhoon (with 145-160 mph winds) that destroyed Waimea Hongwanji's two social halls and the minister's residence. All the utility poles were blown down and blocked the main roads. Suzie and I evacuated to the main temple hall and found shelter behind the temple organ on the alter. I will never forget the sounds of crashing debris blown about by powerful winds. Iniki hit around 6:00 AM and continued to around 2:00 PM. During those horrible eight hours, Iniki destroyed over 14,000 homes and many hotels. The winds and debris damaged cars, blew down utility poles, and destroyed public facilities. The minister's residence sustained major wind and rain damage. After Iniki passed through, about 50 neighbors came to the temple to stay with us for a couple of weeks. There were babies and small children. We spent the days and nights without electricity, water, and hot meals. Also, we did not have enough clothes and blankets. We wore the same clothes for a whole week because there was no water to do laundry. Some people were washing their clothes at the Waimea riverside. We also had to dig several holes for bathroom use.

On the following day, in the early morning, I checked Waimea Town. There were National Guard soldiers standing in front of banks, stores, and the post office, guarding against looters. Suzie and I were shocked by the massive changes after Iniki hit. I still remember clearly that the Waimea Canyon mountainside lost all of its green colors. I could see only the red clay that exposed the mountain surface.

The next day, the late Mr. Takashiba came to see us. He said all fallen utility poles had been moved to the roadside by local volunteers in Hanapepe and Waimea. The roads were open for rescue trucks from the National Guard, Red Cross, and U.S. Military.

We were still new in Waimea, so we didn't know what to do to. But with temple members' and neighbors' kindness and help, Suzie and I survived. We put a tent up in the Japanese garden next to the temple, and Suzie and I lived there with homeless neighbors living in the main temple throughout September. Later we moved to an empty house in Kekaha that belonged to a Waimea temple member.

Two weeks after Iniki hit, the late Bishop Nakanishi flew to Kauai to visit all five temples on Kauai. He was chosen as one of the religious leaders to be a part of a select rescue team formed by the Hawaii State government. Nakanishi

Sensei came to see us after visiting all the other temples. He brought a Suehiro shoyu chicken bento for his lunch, but we ate most of it since we had no cooked meals for over two weeks. Since we ate his Suehiro (presently Gyotaku) Bento, we offered him our military rations. I want to say "Sumimasen" to Rev. Nakanishi for eating his bento!

Our new life on Kauai began with this most challenging experience. It was tough. However, we learned so many things, especially how to survive a serious natural disaster. From this experience, I learned what I must do as a minister for temple members and friends in case of a community emergency. It is very important for our temples to open their halls to support our community in an emergency. Jikoen has contracted with the American Red Cross since 2006 to serve as a designated emergency shelter. I am so proud that Jikoen is ready and willing to open its doors to help our community.

After seven years on Kauai, serving the Waimea, Hanapepe, and Koloa temples, I was reassigned to Bishop Yosemite's office in 1999. I moved to Honolulu with our two children, Shanna and Skyler, and a little cat that had lost its mother during Hurricane Iniki. I was so excited to work at HQ under the guidance of Bishop Yosemite.

BSC Summer Session 2022

Held In-person and via Zoom

Jōdo Shinshū and the Making of American Buddhism Is Shin Buddhism the foundation of American Buddhism?

Dr. Scott Mitchell, author of Mid-Century Modern Buddhism, examines Buddhism in the United States before, during, and after World War II, when Nisei Jodo Shinshu Buddhists reacted to the trauma of racial and religious discrimination by laying claim to an American identity inclusive of their religious identity. In the pages of temple-supported magazines, such as the Berkeley Bussei, Nisei argued that Buddhism was both what made them good Americans but also what they had to contribute to America, a rational and scientific religion of peace.

Dr. Mitchell is the current Dean of the Institute of Buddhist Studies. He is a scholar of Buddhism in the West, Pure Land Buddhism, and Buddhist Modernism. He has taught classes on “American Buddhism” and “Buddhism and Popular Culture” for the past fifteen years.

“Congratulations, Graduates!”

Bishop Eric Matsumoto

The greeting “Glad to see you!” held more meaning than ever this year as Pacific Buddhist Academy's Commencement Exercise was, once again after 2 years, held in person. As is the tradition, on the Thursday evening before Commencement, a special Baccalaureate Service sponsored by the Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii officiated by Bishop Eric Matsumoto, planned by Executive Assistant to the Bishop Rev. Daido Baba and Ms. Liane Vilorio of PBA was held at the Honpa Hongwanji Hawaii Betsuin with Temple's Ministers and Family & Friends of the Graduates present. At the Service, each Graduate was presented with a special PBA montoshikisho in “recognition of their engagement with the Dharma, or Buddhist Teachings, during their studies at PBA.” Also, participating was Mr. Josh Morse, PBA's Head of Schools, and Ms. Teddi Yagi, Vice Principal of Hongwanji Mission School who presented an award. Dr. Warren Tamamoto, State President of Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii shared a congratulatory message on behalf of Hawaii Kyodan. A Congratulatory Message from the Administrative Head of the Jodo Shinshu Hongwanji World-wide Denomination Governor General Chiko Iwagami was read by Executive Assistant to the Bishop and PBA Chaplain Rev. Daido Baba.

Then, on Friday, May 6, 2022, the Commencement Exercise honoring the 26 Graduates of PBA's Class of 2022 was held at the famous Waikiki Shell. The sharing of an individualized personal message crafted by the Head of Schools to each Graduate and the Graduates presenting kukui nut lei to their family members before the crowd of well-wishers as an expression of their gratitude for the love and support they received are two of the unique highlights of PBA's Graduation every year.

The following Aspiration was given by Bishop Eric Matsumoto at Commencement:

Today, under a Hawaiian sky, as we gather for this Commencement Exercise for Pacific Buddhist Academy's Class of 2022 at the Waikiki Shell, in the presence of All-Inclusive Wisdom and All-Embracing Compassion, Amida Buddha, let us reflect and aspire.

The Buddha's compassion is often likened to the sun or rain. Just as life sustaining rain without prejudice falls equally upon on all and the sun casts its light on all without discrimination, so does Buddha's wisdom and compassion shine upon all. It guides and nurtures us to truly understand Universal Reality and encourages us to do what is right and proper or “pono” as we would say in Hawaii. Also, I share with you the Historic Buddha's exhortation to the monks and nuns of his time. The Buddha said “Go forth for the good of the many, for the happiness of the many, out of compassion for the world, for the welfare, the good and the happiness of gods and people.”

At Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii and PBA, we hope that our Graduates have learned not only the academic knowledge and skills necessary to pursue their dreams and careers, but that they have also gained some insight and perspectives into truths like interdependence which gives rise to virtues like mutual respect and appreciation, and fosters being a caring presence with courage, humility, equanimity and equality, non-discrimination and non-judgement aspiring for peace and harmony throughout the world. May All-Inclusive Wisdom and All-Embracing Compassion continually guide them throughout their life so they may exemplify the ideal way of living which is “Simultaneously benefiting both self and others.”

Today, as we extend our congratulations to our Graduates and their Families, let us express our acknowledgment and gratitude to all others, not limited to our human relations, for the part they played in our lives and embrace the aspiration for the happiness and well-being of one and all.

To conclude this Aspiration, please join me in gassho/anjali, a gesture of reverence and respect in Buddhism, to recite Amida Buddha's Honored Name in awareness, joy and gratitude of Great Wisdom and Compassion.

Namo Amida Butsu, Namu Amida Butsu. Namu Amida Butsu/Entrusting in All-Inclusive Wisdom and All-Embracing Compassion.

Message from the Governor General of Jodo Shinshu Hongwanji-ha Bishop Chiko Iwagami for 2022 PBA Baccalaureate

First, congratulations to this year's graduates!

As we share this moment, you may be looking back on the many memories of your time spent here at PBA.

Graduation marks the end of one of many chapters in one's lifetime, and at the same time, it is also the starting point as you embark on a new goal. As you set off from Pacific Buddhist Academy, you will carry the memories of your days here at PBA together with your hopes and dreams in the next phase of your life.

In response to the Novel Coronavirus pandemic these past two years, in-person learning, as well as extracurricular activities and events have been limited. As a result, your senior year of high school may not have gone as you had hoped, and many may have found this very disappointing. But perhaps, these unprecedented circumstances gave us an opportunity to stop and carefully think about our lifestyle and future that we had been taking for granted.

Bulletin boards at schools are often used for making announcements and sometimes displays a motto or slogan. Buddhist temples also have this kind of bulletin board on which inspirational words or a short phrase filled with Buddhist wisdom are shared. Maybe you have seen one of these. A few years ago, a Japan-based Buddhist organization called Bukkyo Dendo Kyokai held a contest of inspirational phrases shared by Buddhist temples through their bulletin boards. This contest, which is called "Let it Shine! Temple Bulletin Board Project" has been gaining attention in Japan. The Grand Prize winner for 2020, which was selected from a total of 1,677 entries, was a remark made by a salesperson of a drugstore in Kanagawa prefecture, which was displayed at a temple in Kumamoto prefecture. It read, "The thing that scared me the most was not COVID, but humans."

We were faced with many challenges when the first state of emergency was declared in Japan in April 2020. The media reported that a healthy person with no underlying health conditions had died of COVID-19 within a couple of days. People were panic buying face masks and hand sanitizers. Customers were lashing out at store employees because of the empty shelves. Some were even engaging in the reselling of medical masks and price gouging. In learning that we become infected through contact with others, we have become suspicious of people around us. Sadly, this has led to stigma and discrimination against frontline medical workers and COVID-19 patients. Everyone is scared in the same way, but the feeling of fear has driven us into an egocentric shell. The phrase, "the most terrifying are humans," is a description of the reality of us humans, which was revealed in the circumstance of the pandemic.

The phrase that took second place in the contest that year was one that was displayed on the bulletin board of Tsukiji Hongwanji in Tokyo, a Jodo Shinshu Hongwanji-ha branch temple. The phrase is, "Even if you hurt me, I would not hurt you back. This is Buddhism."

In fact, Sakyamuni Buddha taught us that if you take revenge on someone, in turn, that person will take revenge on you, and so in this way, the hatred would never end. You may feel you have the upper hand when you take revenge on someone whom you hate, but it only puts that person in the same position as you were in and that individual would plot vengeance against you. Thus, hatred between the two of you would never diminish.

The only way out of this sad circle of hate is through sharing feelings with each other. Let us try to rid ourselves of our own egoistic mind and feel the joy and sorrow of others.

Just as no one could have ever predicted this pandemic, what awaits us in the future is also unknown. There may be happy occasions, as well as some sad ones too. Please continue learning more about Buddhism, which is the spiritual legacy of this school's foundation, and Buddhism will surely provide you with the guidance you need whenever you are feeling lost in your own fear or hatred.

Our lives are all interrelated and interconnected. It is important that we keep in mind this feeling of gratitude for one another, as we continue to practice the spirit of placing our hands in gassho, and make every effort to respect and uphold the dignity of all life. In today's world, we are too often only concerned with the results. Although you may endeavor, it may not always pay off. However, try to not feel distressed in such situations, and try not to boast when your efforts are rewarded. All you need to do is just continue in your efforts. When this naturally comes to you, you are then a truly respectful and beautiful human.

It is my hope that you will face things you encounter with a feeling of gratitude that “thanks to you, I am enabled to dedicate myself to this.” Then, I am confident that a bright future will await you.

In closing, I would like to extend my congratulations once again. Thank you.
