MINISTER'S MESSAGE

Rev. Shindo Nishiyama

Our Reason for Living

私達がこの世に生まれてきた理由は1人でも私を必要としてくれる人のためです。仏教はその大切さを教えてくれる教えなのです。だから今日からでも私を必要としてくれる人たちのために毎日をよろこびの中で生きること、そのような生き方を慈光園でともに聞かせていただきましょう。

The reason we are born into this world is to live for those who need us, even if it is just one other person. Buddhism teaches us the importance of this. So starting even from today, let us live each day in the joy of serving those who need us. Together at Jikoen, let's share and learn about this way of life.

"Exquisite Manifestations of True Entrusting"

Bishop Eric Matsumoto

Recently, I was honored to participate in a temple anniversary celebrating the temple's 125 years of history and re-affirm its legacy. In my mind, this particular temple, which was founded in 1897 which makes it the third oldest temple in Hawaii, has two rich intertwining noteworthy legacies.

First, the inspiring spiritual legacy of the temple as captured in the book "Dharma Treasures, Spiritual Insights from Hawaii's Shin Buddhist Pioneers" by Rev. Tatsuo Muneto which captures the spiritual journey and religious experience of some remarkable people of the nembutsu of this locale. Some have gained the attention of renowned scholars of Buddhism such as the late D. T. Suzuki and others while less known still provide us with valuable insights into Shin Buddhism which may also help us in our own spiritual quest. For example, "Joyful brightness, having entrusted everything to Amida, I am saved just as I am!" by Jutarō Oshima or (part of) Ume Hirano's encouragement "If you truly love your child, teach him/her well about the teaching of Buddha, attaining birth in the Buddha land of peace. That is the compassion of parents that forever remains." and the words of Iwaichi Nakamura who said, "In the timeless process of birth-and-death, for the first time I was made to realize the Other Power of Amida Buddha. My understanding resulted from listening, but listening is nothing, but a little scratch on a precious gem. I trusted my understanding instead of trusting Amida. Until now, I was satisfied with my understanding. But, my understanding does not save me; It is Amida who saves me."

Second, there is the wondrous physical manifestation of the first legacy which is the beautiful temple, as a Nembutsu Dojo, with its prized koa wood pews and unique Hawaiian Sandalwood image of "Amida who

November 1, 2022

Dear Jikoen Ohana,

2022-2023 Annual Social Concerns Fund Drive

We celebrate gratitude in the month of November. The Thanksgiving holiday and the Eitaikyo (Honoring Our Ancestors) observance are reminders of the countless blessings in our lives and how we live deeply connected to the world around us. It is in this spirit of profound gratitude that we begin our Annual Social Concerns Fund Drive. The fund drive will begin November 1, 2022 through August 31, 2023 and we will submit Jikoen's collected donations by the end of September 2023.

Through your generosity, the Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii is able to support worthy organizations and programs making a positive impact in our community. Your support also enables us to provide compassionate aid during times of disaster and the ability to skillfully respond to issues affecting our local and world communities.

Because of your commitment to promoting the Buddhist values of compassion and loving kindness, we have been able to support humanitarian relief efforts for those affected by the war in Ukraine and the volcanic eruption in Tonga. We also sponsored a series of suicide prevention events organized by the Samaritan Counseling Center of Hawaii, supported ongoing disaster relief planning by Hawaii Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (Hawaii VOAD), renewed our support of The Interfaith Alliance Hawaii, and assisted food banks on every island in their mission to alleviate food insecurity.

We continue to award Golden Chain Grants to help nurture Dharma in action as well as COVID-19 Resilience Grants to help temples acquire PPE and cleaning supplies to operate safely during the ongoing pandemic.

A Fund Drive envelope has been provided for you.

Please make your check payable to JIKOEN HONGWANJI MISSION.

Jikoen will then remit one combined check to the Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii.

We encourage you to continue supporting the Annual Social Concerns Fund Drive to help worthy organizations and programs with funding to continue their work in our community.

Your support is greatly appreciated.

Mahalo!

Respectfully in gratitude,

saves me” carved from Hawaiian Sandalwood harvested from the mountainous hills above the temple. However, did you know that there is an “older brother” image of the current Amida Buddha (which has returned home to the Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii)? Apparently, there develop a crack as often happens with wood and thus a second block of sandalwood was sent to Japan and that Amida Buddha image has been the temple’s Object of Reverence since 1933.

By now, I am sure that many of you have guessed that I am referring to Kona Hongwanji. I sincerely hope that this legacy of Nembutsu, not only at Kona Hongwanji, but all of our temples in Hawaii will not be forgotten and will manifest itself with the sound of Namu Amida Butsu being gratefully recited and carried forward by us, of the present Sangha, so that future generations will also be able to encounter the unparalleled and unconditional Wisdom and Compassion of Amida Buddha as happened in the past.

Let us take to heart the words of our current Spiritual Leader, the 25th Gomonshu, His Eminence Kojun Ohtani’s words to “Secure one’s own entrusting heart to the Dharma, guiding others to the same path” and Shinran Shonin’s words “I praise Amida’s wisdom and virtue, So that beings with mature conditions throughout the ten quarters may hear. Let those who have realized shinjin, constantly respond in gratitude to the Buddha’s benevolence.”

To close, please join me to recite Namu Amida Butsu or The Buddha-s Name That I Call in gratitude, in response to Namu Amida Butsu, The Buddha’s Name Which Calls Me to entrust. Namu Amida Butsu. Namu Amida Butsu. Namu Amida Butsu/Entrusting in All-Inclusive Wisdom and All-Embracing Compassion.

Kauai Hongwanji Council Nembutsu Seminar

A Look at Shinran Shonin's Life and Thought

Friday, November 18, 5:00 pm - 7:00 pm (HST): Zoom

Guest Speaker: Rev. Dr. Takashi Miyaji

Shinran Shonin, the founder of the Jodo Shinshu school of Buddhism, sought enlightenment while practicing as a Tendai monk on Mt. Hiei. But as we look at the various episodes that develop in his life, we will come to see how he gradually turns over to the Great Working of Amida Buddha. How did this happen? What does this mean? What can it mean for us?

In this seminar, he will provide possible interpretations as to how certain events in Shinran's life helped to shape his religious thought. In addition, we will look at some of his writing to see what are the key points in his teaching, which will bring forth to light just how significant his contribution was to the development of Buddhism as a whole.

Rev. Dr. Takashi Miyaji is currently a minister at Southern Alameda County Buddhist Church since August 1, 2020. In addition, he teaches at the Institute of Buddhist Studies located in Berkeley, California. His previous assignment as a minister was at Tacoma Buddhist Temple from December 2017 to July 31, 2020.

He graduated from the University of California at Berkeley with a Bachelor's Degree in Philosophy and Japanese language and literature, Institute of Buddhist Studies at Berkeley, California with a Master's Degree in Buddhist Studies, Ryukoku University in Kyoto, Japan with a Master's Degree in Shin Buddhist Studies, and completed the doctoral coursework at Ryukoku University. He specializes in the areas of Japanese Buddhism and religion, translation of Buddhist scripture, and Jodo Shinshu doctrine and ethics.

Rev. Miyaji received his Tokudo and Kyoshi qualifications at the Honpa Hongwanji school located in Kyoto, Japan. He also obtained the academic ranking of Hokyo recognized within Hongwanji. He most recently completed his doctoral dissertation entitled, "Shin Buddhist Ethics," through Ryukoku University.

Minister Lay Assistants Gather for Annual Training Retreat

On October 8-9, 15 Minister Lay Assistants (MLA) met in Honolulu at the Buddhist Study Center with 4 faculty to learn how to better assist their temple ministers. The Hawaii MLA program is designed to nurture lay volunteers interested in helping in spiritual tasks and Dharma-centered projects at their temples. Continued steps towards becoming a minister are totally optional.

CHANGE OR DIE

Insights, Ideas, and Tips from Rev. Bob Oshita (“Retired Bob”)

Rev. Bob Oshita was resident minister of Sacramento Buddhist Church for 32 years when the Sangha temple community grew to more than 1000 families and the Dharma School from 75 to 400 students, necessitating expansion of the Temple and Educational Facilities.

Don't miss out on this unique opportunity to learn from Rev. Bob's decades of experience in making Jodo Shinshu Buddhism “immediately relevant” in people's lives, at each stage of this unrepeatable life.

“If we don't make Jodo Shinshu immediately relevant in people's lives, then Hongwanji membership will continue to dwindle and our temples will continue to close.”

—Rev. Bob Oshita

Session I: Jodo Shinshu for Everyone

Session II: Jodo Shinshu for Temple Growth

Session III: Jodo Shinshu for Youth, Parents, Grandparents, Uncles & Aunties

JUST SAY MAHALO
MAKAWAO HONGWANJI BUDDHIST TEMPLE

Everyone enjoyed the fellowship, making new Dharma friends, and renewing old ones.

Study of temple rituals included creating a sacred space for worship, altar setup, meaning of religious objects, chanting, and developing a meaningful service order. Dharma communication workshops provided opportunities to deliver meaningful and relevant messages at worship services. The 2-day retreat was challenging and worthwhile, with most MLA's saying there was not enough time to cover as much as they wished.

The 2023 MLA Retreat will learn from this gathering and improve the program for more attendees to take steps along the Shin Buddhist path. Plan to join us next year!

Upcoming HUOA Events

The Hawaii United Okinawa Association (HUOA) is proud to announce the following schedule of events:
