Reserve Your Seats for PBA's Taiko Festival!

Hawaii's premier high school taiko program will celebrate a showcase of student, faculty and guest talent on Sunday, March 25, at 4 p.m. at the Pearl City Cultural Center. The theme of Pacific Buddhist Academy's 12th annual Taiko Festival is Koi-Koi - Let's Go!

In Hanafuda, playing cards of Japanese origin, "koi-koi" is said when a player wants to continue the hand. Hyaku Sen Ki Kai Taiko, PBA's premier taiko group, is no exception, renewing itself with vigor and high octane spirit year after year.

Tickets for the festival are $25 for general admission, or $20 for seniors, students, and PBA alumni. They may be purchased by calling 808-532-2649, in person at PBA's Main Office at 1754 Lusitana Street, or online at www.pacificbuddhistacademy.org.

Deep Gratitude to Everyone!

by Doris Oshiro, President

As always, all of our volunteers were a significant part of our Drive-Thru BBQ Chicken Fundraiser on February 17. On behalf of Jikoen Hongwanji, I would like to thank you very much for your support of our fundraiser. The event was a great success and it wouldn't be possible without the help of each and every one of you!

- Hui O'Laulima: President – Jean Yamasato, Audrey Gibo, Karen Kuba-Hori, Gerri Maeda, Stella Shinkoethe and Valerie Teruya,
- Lanakila Okinawa Nenchosha Club: President – Jane Higa, Janet Ito, Sally Kageyama, Diane Kawakami, Harry & Flora Nakasone, Jean Sugihara and Richard Tada. (Mahalo to Diane who went back to her car to get her CD player, so the andagi crew could enjoy music while cooking and packing outside.)
- Farrington High School Key Club: Dylana Vaquilar, Rhaven Vaquilar and Hazelle Baptiste. Youthful and helpful volunteers led by Grant Ito-Advisor.
- Hoku Fund-raiser BBQ Chicken (50th State Poultry)
- The Uezu family: Darryl & Linda and sons Derron & Evan
- Eggs Hawaii: Debbie Shimabukuro
- KYM Bento Sushi & Catering: Jon Morishige & Koyu Oda.

We wouldn't have enough help if it weren't for outside support.

To those of you who came to the rescue of Earl Kita & Eric Yosemite to set up the tents on Sunday, February 11, thank you very much! We are always in need of manpower to setup and break down the areas.

To Mrs. Suzie Nishiyama and the staff of Lumbini Preschool – Vangie Bacani, Kathleen Cadiz, Emiko Foltz, Keiko Kwan, Susan Okazawa, Letty Rafada, Jaydi Tesoro, and Rei Tsurumi – we are truly grateful for your dedication to Jikoen.

Thank you to our early morning andagi crew, who started as early as 4:00 a.m. to get things started. Harry Arakaki, Earl Kita, Lawson Kita, Michael Shiroma, James Toma, Bert Yasui, Will and Sylvia Gushi, Elaine Hirashiki, Hui O'Laulima Club and the Lanakila Okinawa Nenchosha Club.

Volunteers were greeted by Laura Ajimine, Betty Higa, Judy Muramoto.

Other volunteers also jumped in to help without missing a beat whenever or wherever others were unable to help.

Thanks to the efforts of Norman Kaneshiro, who publishes our fundraising events in the Jikoen Newsletter. He also set up the sound system so we could enjoy music while working.

Of course, communications was very important in the drive thru area! Thank you to Amy Saito for arranging radios for our team members to relay orders and for our shuttle van driver. Through the generous donation of Dee Fujii and her son Sean of CQ Communications, they were able to provide 14 radios for our event.

To Shari Tamashiro, who volunteered and also posts our events on social media and encourages all to support Jikoen, ippei niffee deebiru!

The opportunities to be involved were once again coordinated and supported by our Jikoen Sangha, JBWA, and Dharma School families.

Much mahalo goes to Alison Colby and Eric Yosemite, who laid out the plans and procedures for each area. It is a very daunting task and your leadership is deeply appreciated.

JoAnn Yosemite and her team with Sandra Toma, Etsuko Horio & daughter Jaci, and Linden Fujise – cashier at the Non-Vehicle Walk-In pick up table.

Marleen Nishimiya who came in at 4:00 a.m. and started andagi prep and inventory control with Jean Oshiro and Grace Ueunten.

Geno Oshiro with Esther Kita, Kenneth Matsumoto and whoever they could corral to help them get the BBQ Chicken delivery area in order and running smoothly!

To Kevin Nicol (son-in-law of Roy & June Nakamasu) and Kingston (7yr. old grandson) who shuttled everyone to & from Kapalama School.

JBWA President, June Nakamasu continues to support our temple fundriaser together with the BWA members. We are truly grateful for their many years of dedication to Jikoen and especially for helping coordinate our special events!

Mr. Masuo Kino and the parking volunteers who helped make sure the cars flowed through for the Drive Thru pickup. Dennis Nakamasu, our shuttle van driver from Kapalama School to Jikoen and back. Mahalo to Eric Yosemite for obtaining the van from Hertz. Cal Kitamori, Sanford Oshiro, Mike Shimabukuro and Morris Zukeran.

All of you deserve our deepest appreciation! It's harder and harder these days to get the number of volunteers needed, but each of you made time in your busy schedule to step up.

That means even more as each year gets busier, Jikoen will need your continued support!

Please accept my sincere apologies, if I missed or did not mention all of our volunteers that continue to support us and put in countless hours to keep Jikoen thriving!

Thank you very much! Domo Arigato! Ippei nifee deebiru! Much Mahalo!

Until next time, Gambarimashoo! Chibariyo! Namu Amida Butsu.

JBWA Dana Day Service

Jikoen observed its annual Dana Day Service on February 11, 2018. We were privileged to have Alan Goto from the Honpa Hongwanji Hawaii Betsuin lead the Sutra reading and share his Dharma message. He shared his experiences of his walk on the Nembutsu Path, about his very special time with his father-in-law as he drove him to Sunday service, his Tokudo training in Kyoto and his pride and wonderment as he helped care for his grandchildren.

Assisting at the service were Jikoen members Jaryd Oshiro, Keith Oshiro, and the Ladies of Jikoen who led the congregation in the Vandana and Ti-Sarana.

We welcomed Robert & Gayle Noguchi and Steven & Kathy Terusaki from the Buddhist Churches of America in San Francisco, who earlier attended the 106th Legislative Assembly (Giseikai) at Honpa Hongwanji

Mission of Hawaii.

We were fortunate to enjoy the talents of Robert, who did the Kansho (ringing of the bell) and Steven who played the organ for the service. They also helped us learn the Gatha, "A Special Place" by the late Linda Castro of the Seattle Buddhist Temple.

Jikoen's 2017 Project Dana volunteers were recognized for their valuable services provided to frail elderly clients living near Ala Moana, in Liliha, Kalihi and Kaneohe.

Thank you!

The volunteers honored were Masuo Kino, Esther Kita,

Shiz Miyasato, Kenneth & Myrna Nishihara, Sandy Toma and Kats Yamashiro.

Volunteer services include weekly shopping by list, transportation for grocery shopping and medical appointments, "friendly" visits to their homes or care facility and sending greeting cards to homebound seniors. They certainly helped to enrich the lives of their clients with their kindness and compassion.

Much mahalo to all who generously donated to the Dana Day Fund.

If you are interested and have time to volunteer as a regular or backup Project Dana volunteer, please call Sandy Toma at 792-9501.

Dues are also sent to Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii for various statewide outreach programs and annual operation.

On behalf of Jikoen, Hongwanji and Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii, thank you very much for paying your dues. If you are not a member, please consider becoming one. This list includes members who have paid in full.
