PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Doris Oshiro

Hope everyone is enjoying their summer!

We are very busy at Jikoen with many events and projects, but I took some time to visit my daughter and her family in Japan. We also took this opportunity to visit Okinawa. While visiting my paternal grandfather's family in Yomitan Village, I was surprised that there was a Saint Shinran statue there. The next time you travel to Okinawa, up toward Maeda Point (Maedabiru) or Onna Village, you will find a statue of Shinran Shonin.

Mr. Yehan Numata, who donated this statue that rests in Yomitan Village, is the founder of Mitsutoyo Corporation and the founder of BDK Bukkyo Dendo Kyokai, which provides the free book The Teachings of the Buddha. He embodied peace and compassion to all and followed Shinran's ways.

This location was a place where heavy artillery was set up to defend the bay during the Battle of Okinawa. The statue is to remind us that we should all seek worldwide peace based on peaceful coexistence. Here you can see Churaumi (the beautiful ocean), the bay stretching from Yomitan to Nago. There is a marker in front of the area that has details in English. I was surprised to find that the monument donor was the late Rev. Shoshin Kie, whose wife and daughters are members of Moiliili Hongwanji Mission. They used to visit my late Nakasone Ojii's family once a month to hold service at their home. The statue stands next to a large bell. Striking the bell reminds us to be mindful of world peace.

It is said that ten years after World War II, a similar statue was given by the Japanese, as a gift to the United States as a message of hope and peace. This statue is one of the few structures at Hiroshima that survived the atomic bomb and remained intact. We were fortunate to see the statue that resides in New York City at the New York Buddhist Temple when we visited in 2015.

Whenever I travel, I try to visit at least one temple or statue. Heading to the World Buddhist Women's Convention in San Francisco in August, we hope to visit other temples and also the Las Vegas Buddhist Temple when we travel on our post tour.

Enjoy the rest of your summer and keep safe! Please join us at Jikoen's Annual Bon Dance on Friday, July 19 and Saturday, July 20. Everyone welcome! (see more info in this issue)

TEMPLE NEWS

Derek Ichiro Shiroma

On April 27, one of the brightest lights of Jikoen passed away unexpectedly.

Derek Ichiro Shiroma, sensei of Okinawa Minyo Kyokai Hawaii, dedicated his life to his ohana, the Okinawan culture and extended his love to everyone he met. His generosity and affection touched every element of the Uchinanchu spirit. He would always let his love shine through for everyone.

Derek sensei was always trying to fulfill his dreams and follow his passions. He was one of Jikoen's strongest supporters and a big reason Jikoen is where we're at today.

Never one to turn down our request for help in fundraising, Derek sensei spearheaded many events and instilled on the younger generation to do the same to carry on for

Family Promise at Jikoen August 11–18, 2019

Your kokua is needed for Family Promise of Hawaii. Please make a difference in the lives of families who have fallen onto hard times. All four temples of the Honolulu district have banded together to be participants in this program to help homeless families by providing overnight lodging for one week and meals (breakfast and dinner) for four to five families (up to 16 persons).

We will be hosting families at Jikoen Hongwanji Social Hall from August 11–18, 2019. These families will be using the Social Hall from 5:30 p.m. to 7:00 a.m. daily.

Each morning, the families will go to work, school or the Family Promise Day Center where they meet with staff, care for young children, learn life skills and seek housing and employment.

Ways YOU can help in this all-important community-service project:

1. Donate food and supplies.
2. Cook meals.
3. Stay overnight.
4. Make financial contributions

Use the following form to make your commitment. Return it to the temple office or email: jikoen.info@gmail.com

Jikoen and the Okinawan culture. He was instrumental in helping with concerts, Bon Dance, volunteering and being a dedicated member of our Jikoen Ohana.

Derek sensei loved life so much, and he loved to celebrate life every day. Many of us had the opportunity to dance, smile and pay respect to him at his celebration of life at the Hawaii Okinawa Center on May 30.

His beautiful spirit will live on through the legacy he left with his children, grandchildren, students, friends & community.

Our Jikoen Ohana extends it's deepest sympathy and sincere condolences to the Shiroma Ohana. May peace and comfort be with you in the days ahead. He will indeed be with us forever in our hearts & minds!

He is survived by his wife, Loree; son, Derek Kao Jr., daughters: Heather (Brandon) Tabios, Ashley (Tom) Brown, Scherice (Scott), Tiffany (Sacha), and Leigh Ann Makana Shiroma. Grandchildren: Taylor and Tommy Brown, & Braxton Tabios. Sister: Lynn Shiroma-Kami, nephew: Kolin Kami and brother: the late Gerald Shiroma. In-Laws: Gary H. & Janet Y. Kaneshiro.

Volunteers Needed for Project Dana

Project Dana is a Faith In Action program that provides a variety of services to the frail, elderly, and disabled to ensure their well-being, independence, and dignity in an environment of their choice. Started in 1989 at Moiliili Hongwanji, the initiative is now hosted by over thirty churches and temples across Hawaii and the U.S. mainland.

Trained volunteers provide support, guided by the principle of "Dana," which combines selfless giving and compassion without desire for recognition or reward. Project Dana also collaborates with over 150 private and public agencies across the state.

A typical Project Dana assignment is providing transportation to a nearby market every two weeks. A variation of this is "shopping by list" for those unable to shop on their own. Other assignments could entail housework or to provide transportation for a doctor's appointment.

If you can spare an average of 2 hours once every two weeks and have access to a car, please call Sandra Toma, Project Dana coordinator for Jikoen Hongwanji Mission at 845-3422. Thank you!

New Members, Welcome to Jikoen!

Come and join us at our regular services and other activities throughout the year. Please ask how you and your family can get involved with our ohana or how we can help you!
