PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Doris Oshiro

Year End Message

Covid-19 has brought tremendous uncertainty and change in the way we live and operate each day since March 2020. By the time you read this message, there will only be about 30 days left in 2020.

Due to the uncertainty of the Covid situation, planning for 2021 has been difficult. I want to thank each and every one of you for taking the time to volunteer and to help make important decisions for Jikoen. As always, we will adapt to each situation.

On Sunday, November 15, Jikoen held a groundbreaking ceremony for the construction of our long awaited elevator access lift. Rev. Shindo Nishiyama conducted a short service hosted via Zoom at 9:30 a.m.

Short messages were delivered by President Doris Oshiro and Honpa Hongwanji immediate past president, Pieper Toyama. Following the ceremony, the Board of Directors in attendance, held their monthly meeting at 10:30 a.m. in the hondo.

Although scheduled to begin in mid-November, construction installation is now scheduled to begin in December. Pending no further delays, it should be completed by early next year.

All in-person activities and events are still cancelled until further notice.

We are doing our best to serve our Sangha and support each other. Financial donations through the generosity of our members and supporters continue to allow Jikoen to be a special gathering place. Our wish is that through the generosity of each of you, our temple will be upgraded to provide a safe, accessible and welcoming place for all.

As we bring the year to a close, I would like to thank you for your dedication and ask for your continued support. We look forward to the day when we can open our temple doors and see each other again.

As always, feel free to call or email the office and leave your contact information. Office hours are not set due to the Covid situation. Phone lines are open for you to leave a call back number and short message. Someone will return your call ASAP.

Please continue to take care of each other and yourself. Happy Holidays and Keep Safe!

Eitaikyo, Drive-Thru Keirokai Recognition, and Gratitude Lunch

On November 22, we commemorated Eitaikyo by honoring twenty-one of our elders for their selfless sacrifice and long dedication to Jikoen Hongwanji Mission.

The word Eitaikyo is a contraction of the more formal term, Ei-tai dok(u)-kyo.

“Ei” means eternal, composed of the Chinese Characters for a river with many tributaries that flows on and on. “Tai” means generations. “Doku” means to read or chant. “Kyo” means sutras or the words of the Buddha.

Thus the meaning of Eitaikyo is to eternally chant the sutras on behalf of not only our loved ones that have passed, but also for generations to come.

It is a dedication service in memory of past generations of our loved ones and all who came before us, for which we are truly grateful.

We honor and recognize the hard work and sacrifices they made to give us the inspiration to keep the Buddha’s teachings alive during these trying times.

A large part of this service has been the annual Keirokai Recognition. “Kei” means to honor or respect and “ro” means elderly; thus, Keiro means to “honor the elderly.” We also honor and pay tribute to the elderly citizens of our temple who were unable to join us that day.

Volunteers also delivered this special treat to our honorees who were unable to drive-thru.

Rev. Shindo and Mrs. Suzue Nishiyama showed their appreciation to our elders with a drive-by lunch to-go of hamburger steak, spaghetti, veggie salad, sliced apples and clam chowder. Geno Oshiro also prepared the sekihan for this special occasion.

A gift bag which included a Zippy’s Gift Card, mochi snack, special applique face towel, face masks, gloves and hand sanitizer. In appreciation for all they have done for us and to recognize the long history of hard work, sacrifice, hardship they have endured to keep Jikoen going for our future generations.

Sincere mahalo to the volunteers who helped with the drive-thru. Okagesama de, Doomo Arigato gozaimasu.

HILITES FROM HQ NEWS UPDATES (November, 2020)

Bishop's Corner

Bishop Eric Matsumoto

A suggestion for "Perpetual Chanting of the Sutras (Eitaikyo)"

If you had to choose a word that you associate with the month of November, what would it be? Not surprisingly, for many of us, it would probably be "gratitude." Needless to say, Thanksgiving is the biggest holiday in November and expressing "thanks" is the theme. An important observation is that the 1621 first Thanksgiving Observance brought diverse people together in particular the Pilgrims and Native Americans, the Wampanoag.

For many Buddhists of the Japanese denominations and in particular the Jodo Shinshu Tradition, November is the month that we annually observe Eitaikyo, one of our six Major Services of the year. It is an important service dedicated in memory of past generations of deceased loved ones. The general sentiment is one of acknowledgement and appreciation. In many cases, the hard work and sacrifices of previous generations have benefited we of the present generation for which we are grateful and this includes having a temple, a place where we can safely, harmoniously and gratefully gather to hear the Teachings of All-Inclusive Wisdom and All-Embracing Compassion finding guidance, solace, comfort and inspiration. Traditionally donations received at an Eitaikyo Service where placed in a special fund for a specific purpose to either repair, renovate or replace the temple altar and building and/or for propagation in hopes that the temple and the Dharma will always be available for future generations. People contributed to this special fund in memory and in honor of deceased family members for whom the temple was their second home, a place of "Perpetual (Eitai) Chanting of the Sutra (kyo)" referring to a place where the sutras could be heard and the teachings internalized.

This year, as we observe Eitaikyo, I have a thought for you. "Would you consider sharing with your family members how important and valuable the Buddha's Teachings including the temple are to you?" It saddens me greatly when I hear younger generations say that they did not know how important temple was to their parents, grandparents or great grandparents or did not know just how involved they were at temple. I recently came to know of an interesting custom done by the Jewish. It is called an "Ethical Will." It is not a legal document. In Wikipedia, I found the following "Celebrity physician Andrew Weil promoted the ethical will as a "gift of spiritual health" to leave to family, asserting that the ethical will's "main importance is what it gives the writer in the midst of life." The goal of writing an ethical will is to link a person to both their family and cultural history, clarify their ethical and spiritual values, and communicate a legacy to future generations; it addresses people's "universal needs". Writing an ethical will clarifies identity and focuses life purpose." Interesting, isn't it? I personally prefer the expression "Legacy Letter."

Thus, at this time of the year, as we observe Eitaikyo, would you consider sharing (either written or orally) your religious life and spiritual values as a Jodo Shinshu Buddhist with the other members of your family? Please observe Eitaikyo Family Day in which Eitaikyo is a family affair. You can start with your Family Register or Kakocho which contains some information of your most recently deceased family members. The Kakocho can serve as a genealogy record of your family and from there you can also share about temple and Namo Amida Butsu. The Eitaikyo season can be a time to link or bring together past and present family members in appreciation of each other just as the original Thanksgiving brought diverse peoples together in the spirit of gratitude. For others, please take the Eitaikyo season to discover your temple's origin and history to more fully appreciate it. Of course, the most important story to be shared is the legacy of Namo Amida Butsu. Please have a safe Thanksgiving and meaningful Eitaikyo. Thank you and Namo Amida Butsu.
